ALLY SECRETARIAT 1941

To

H. V. Narayana Rao, Esq., B.A., LL.B.,
SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT
OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE,
LAW DEPARTMENT, BANGALORE.

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No.L.8306-8/Ml.19-40-107 dated 17th May 1941, sanctioning the acquisition of certain properties for opening a new road from Sydney Circle to join the Lal-bagh Road and the Mission Road near the Vaccine Institute etc., I have the honour to state that spare copies of the final notifications were not supplied by the Compiler as usual. The Special Land Acquisition Officer, who is dealing with this scheme, made a reference to the Compiler, Mysore Gazette to supply spare copies and the Compiler has replied to the effect that copies are supplied only when they are asked for.

A copy of the reply is herein enclosed for kind perusal.

I request that the Compiler may be requested to supply spare copies in future, invariably.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A.A.Khan
Municipal Commissioner.

Submitted with a draft letter for approval.
We have no objection for the proposal. In a similar case, the Compiler was requested to supply 20 spare copies of each of the Notifications in English & Kannada & the case was referred to the D.C.'s & Deputy Commissioner's concerned. In this case also, it would be sufficient if 20 spare copies of the notifications in the Mysore Gazette are supplied to the Municipal Commissioner, Bangalore. If he requires a larger no., he should write to him. Draft letter is put up herewith.
